Ministry support helps to provide funds for administrative costs and wire transfer fees which help to facilitate the ministry that occurs in Rwanda supporting 1000 plus children and families. These services also include the administration of the Child Sponsorship and Mission Trip Programs, construction and operation of the Hope for Children International Christian School (510 students in 2025) and supporting structures, Hope Shop and the Tailoring Course. Ministry Support also helps 50+ plus street children to attend public school, and also provides safe room, meals and board at the Hope For Children International Christian School dormitories. Opportunities are also provided for the parents to earn money as well as receive additional support.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $137,871 including grants of $133,880) (Revenue $142,601)

In 2025, the Child Sponsorship Program brought quality school education to approximately 221 children in three pre-school classes as well as grades one thru twelve. This program helps each child to grow and develop mentally, physically and spiritually. School fees, transportation, school day meals, uniforms, school supplies, and hygiene supplies are provided for each child as well as health insurance for their entire family. Sponsorship also covers the administrative costs of the program including two full-time employees of HFCM-Rwanda who oversees and coordinates the program in Rwanda. In additional, 25 full-time teachers are hired for the school, school office personnel as well as support staff providing employment for native Rwandans. Associated with this program are opportunities for child sponsors to provide support for the child's family and one-time gifts such as birthday cakes and presents, clothing and shoes, food for the family, art supplies, soccer balls, chickens, goats, cows, solar lighting, mattresses, blankets, towels and many other items.

We train and bring teams from the USA for short-term mission trips to Rwanda to teach and train over 1000 children and their families including 400 plus parents. They bring lesson materials to disciple, educate and care for them as we build relationships. Life skills are taught such as learning the importance of good hygiene, understanding the dangers of drugs, proper nutrition, simple farming, sexual purity to reduce teen pregnancy, parenting best practices, early childhood development practices and family planning. Discipleship is designed to help develop and grow the children and their parents in their relationship with Jesus Christ. Lessons are reinforced with visual aids, art projects, games, songs and puppets. In 2025 there were 2 separate mission trips. Teams often bring donated items to bless the children and families who are held in the grip of poverty. These include clothes, shoes, school supplies, soccer balls and nets, and other necessary items.
